FISH'S CRITICISM VIGOROUS

Former President of Illinois Central Questions Financial Transactions.

NEW YORK, September 4.—Directors of the Illinois Central Railroad Company met today to act on the business brought to a sudden close a week ago. As the by-laws of the company permit a special meeting to be called by two directors, the company was called to order by Stuyvesant Fish.

Those who attended the meeting were the following: Messrs. Harahan, Goelet, Peabody, Blackett, Auchincloss, Vanderbilt, Cutler and Beach.

At the offices of the company it was stated that no information regarding the meeting would be given out. Mr. Fish declined to make any statement regarding what had taken place. President Harahan could not be found after the adjournment. According to a statement given out by the President's secretary after his return to Chicago last week, the resolution offered by Mr. Fish that brought on the clash between Fish and Harahan asked for certain information regarding changes in the company's methods of accounting.

The resolutions were said to contain charges against the present management, which Mr. Fish desired to have answered. They allege, it is said, that the affairs of the Illinois Central are virtually being conducted from 120 Broadway, the office of the Union Pacific.

They likewise contained clauses questioning the legitimacy of certain financial transactions in which the Illinois Central had been engaged.

With the adoption of the resolutions to-day it was understood that some answer would be prepared by the management and submitted to the meeting of directors, which will be held next Wednesday. It is believed that the resolutions submitted and received to-day, while carrying the import of Mr. Fish's original plan, have been so modified that part of the sting was taken out of them. However, it is also said that they still express his contention and views as to the present management of the Illinois Central in most vigorous terms.

RIFLE RANGE FOR VIRGINIA

public will say it was money well spent."

"Why was it that the team left Camp Harrington, near Williamsburg, where they were practicing, two days before the start of the contest?"

"The team left under orders, and it was a very well advised move. The range at Camp Harrington was being repaired and was only available for practice about three hours in the middle of the day. It was, therefore, thought better to send the men to Camp Perry three days ahead of the match, where they got a good deal of valuable practice. In addition to which it is necessary to learn the range, as the weather conditions are different in Colorado, where the air is rare and dry, will fall down at Seagirt, where the air is heavy and damp, and vice versa."

"I can think then that the team is not to be blamed for failing to make a respectable showing?"

"That is exactly what I think. There was some good material on the team, and three or four of the members did as well as the average on other teams."

"There is plenty of good material all over Virginia to make good rifle shots. People down here have as good eyesight, as steady nerves and as much intelligence as anywhere in the country, but they don't know the game, and don't know until the State starts in earnest to make a good showing. The formation by citizens of a State Rifle Association, and co-operating with the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, would materially aid matters."

FISH'S CRITICISM VIGOROUS

Former President of Illinois Central Questions Financial Transactions.

NEW YORK, September 4.—A scene more suggestive of a modern play than of real life was enacted on board the steamer Ryndam to-day, when Mrs. Ferdinand P. Earle, of Monroe, N. Y., sailed for her native home in France to obtain a divorce. In order that her husband, an artist and Socialist, may marry another woman whom he declares he has found to be his affinity, Mrs. Earle acquiesced in the plan by which she renounced her husband to another woman. If she did not voluntarily enter into the agreement to give him his freedom, and faced a group of reporters and curious persons on the steamer to-day with a smile which gave no hint of any regret at her part in the strange domestic drama in which she is taking the leading role.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle left their home in Monroe together to-day, and drove past curious groups of townspeople to the railroad station. There was a little hissing as Mr. Earle boarded the train, but it is doubtful whether Mrs. Earle heard it above the other noises. Mrs. Earle, with her little son, Harold, aged two and one-half years, who will share her exile, reached the steamer in advance of Mr. Earle, and went at once to her stateroom. Mr. Earle arrived soon afterward, and together they appeared on deck to meet the reporters.

They posed together for a photograph, both smiling and apparently content with the odd twist that fate has given to their lives. Mrs. Earle declined to make any statement, but her husband said:

"Mrs. Earle is bearing up bravely under the ordeal. This notoriety is worth five years work to me. We part with a full understanding, and Mrs. Earle is as much agreed to it as I am. I believe it is the right thing to do."

Mr. and Mrs. Earle went to her stateroom and bade each other good-bye. Victor M. Earle, of this city, brother of the artist, and Mrs. Victor M. Earle, a mass of tears, went to join in the farewells. Victor Earle said that while he and his relatives did not hold the same opinions as his brother, he would not criticize his conduct. Mr. Earle said that the young woman his brother is in love with left the Earle home in Monroe to-day.

Hurt at Locomotive Works.

A. B. Edwards, colored, an employee of the locomotive works, had an accident yesterday afternoon when he fell from a foot and crushing it about the instep. The city ambulance, in charge of Dr. Hinchman, was called and a man was taken to the Virginia Hospital.

Ran Null in His Arm.

George Washington, colored, an employee of the Southern railroad, delivered a department, ran a nail into his forearm yesterday afternoon, making an ugly wound. Dr. Hinchman, of the city ambulance, was called and he was left him able to continue his work.

Disorderly in the Park.

W. Peyton, E. Cates, W. Walthall and D. W. Martin were arrested last night for disorderly conduct in the park. They were taken to the police station and held for the morning.

Rooters Became Disorderly.

J. J. Wood and Walter Hanks got excited over the progress of the baseball game yesterday afternoon and proceeded to bat each other over the head. Policemen Hewell and Wills stopped looking at the game long enough to land both and turn them over to the wagon from the Second Police Station. Both were bailed last night.

Arrest Boy for Theft.

Cy Johnson, a thirteen-year-old colored boy, was locked up at the Second Station last night on the charge of breaking into the house of Marshall Smith, on East Main Street. Policeman G. W. Thurman worked up the case, and Johnson is the second of a gang of three boys who were charged with the crime to be landed. All three will probably land in the Reformatory.

For Striking a Woman.

Ernest Harris (colored) was locked up at the First Police Station last night on a warrant, charging disorder and with striking Lizzie Randolph, colored, and with carrying a dangerous weapon. Harris was taken to the Police Court this morning.

Arrested for Stealing Dogs.

Sam Ames was charged on a warrant yesterday with stealing and carrying away two dogs, the property of Eleanor Vesely. Policeman Bryant landed the Crofton Water dog, which was produced as evidence in the Police Court this morning.
